BIOGRAPHY

Robyn Benincasa - A Beacon of Teamwork and Leadership

From the treacherous jungles of Borneo to the majestic Himalayan peaks of Tibet, Robyn Benincasa has experienced firsthand the power of extreme teamwork. With two decades of experience in some of the world's most gruelling challenges, she embodies the spirit of resilience, leadership, and collaborative success.

The Unyielding Spirit of a World Champion

Robyn isn't just a speaker; she's a testament to human endurance and the magic of collaboration. As a World Champion Adventure Racer, Guinness World Record Endurance Kayaker, and a 20+ year veteran San Diego firefighter, her adventures have taken her to the world's most formidable terrains. Robyn's tales are not just about personal victories, but they exemplify how "Human Synergy" - the harmonious collaboration of individuals - can lead teams to achieve feats that seem virtually impossible. However, her influence isn't restricted to the great outdoors. Recognised as one of the world's top 50 keynote speakers in 2020 by Real Leaders Magazine and touted as the #1 female speaker by Meetings.net, Robyn's impact is felt in boardrooms, conferences, and workshops around the globe. Fortune 500 giants such as IBM, Starbucks, and Walmart have been captivated by her insights.

From Extreme Sports to Extreme Inspiration

Her journey has been more than physical trials. In 2014, CNN hailed her as a hero. She's a best-selling author, and as the founder of The Project Athena Foundation, she uplifts others to rise above challenges. Robyn's infectious spirit has motivated many to undertake audacious tasks, be it climbing Mount Kilimanjaro or launching their businesses. What sets Robyn apart is her ability to translate lessons from extreme team sports to the corporate realm. Her keynotes are a blend of exhilarating stories, real-world insights, and actionable takeaways. They provide a blueprint for fostering a culture where ordinary people unite to achieve the extraordinary.
